

Emily, Media Director

Emily has been working at the pharmacy since she was 15 years old and is the 5th generation to call Winkelmann Sons Drug Co home. She went to Saint Elizabeth Academy and Notre Dame High School then graduated from Southern Illinois University Edwardsville with a degree in Graphic Design. She has gone from insurance verification, to assisting with decorating to her current role as the Social Media Director. She likes to work for a family owned business because everyone there knows her and knows each other. When she is not designing on her computer, working on puzzles , creating works of art; she is hanging out with friends trying the wide range of ethnic food the city has to offer.
